Partners in Prevention Coalition Toolkit

Step 8 Suggested Reading for Prevention in Higher Education

Understanding prevention in higher education can take time for people who are new to prevention work, working in higher education, or both. Getting familiar with key publications, resources, and terms, helps build readiness for coalition members to be engaged and take action. Compiled here are some key documents that can help lay the ground for prevention work in higher education. Also, check out the Partners in Prevention Recommended Reading series on our website!
